The 10th Annual UCLA Scholar-Athlete Banquet took place last month on May 2 in Covel.

Athletic Director Dan Guerrero, Jim Mora, and other UCLA coaches addressed the audience, which included A select group of donors, architects, UCLA Athletics legends, and department administrators. After expressions of gratitude from the recipients, the程序 concluded with a chance to view the ceremonial beam raising. Before the beam was put in place high up on what appeared to be the 20-story building, attendees were given a commemorative gift as a show of UCLA Athletics' appreciation for their generosity and continued support.

Before the guests left after the conclusion of a wonderful dinner and program, they received a limited edition Wooden Volunteer lapel pin for their continued support of UCLA Athletics. For those who have not renewed their Wooden Volunteer membership for 2016-17, today is the renewal deadline.
