Remembering UCLA Athletics in your will or living trust is an easy way to express your support. Whichever option you choose, a bequest costs nothing now and yet provides an opportunity to support the mission of UCLA Athletics.

There are a number of ways you can make a gift that will reduce taxes on your estate or give you the immediate satisfaction of achieving your philanthropic goals. Special arrangements may enable you to plan a gift that will reduce taxes on your estate or provide maximum benefits. These include charitable gifts of cash, stocks, real estate, and life insurance.

A charitable gift annuity (CGA) is a gift of cash, property, or life insurance to UCLA that provides you with a fixed income for life. If you are 70 1/2 or older, you may be able to use up to 100% of the CGA income to avoid taxable distributions from retirement accounts. The income you receive is tax-free up to 50% of your adjusted gross income. For more information, please call the Wooden Athletic Fund office at 310-206-3302, or email development@athletics.ucla.edu.
