In addition to new and upgraded facilities, your generous contributions over the seven-year Centennial Campaign also went to fund program and scholarship support. The CARES Act waives the required minimum distribution (RMD) in 2020 for qualified accounts. If you would like more information regarding UCLA Charitable Gift Annuities or if you would prefer to correspond via email, you may reach us any time for information. Dan Guerrero, who announced his plans to retire from UCLA this July 1, was recently named the next Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics.

The generous Wooden Athletic Fund donors listed below have increased their giving to support our student-athletes, coaches, and staff.

NEW "BECOME A CHAMPION" CHALLENGE

The previous Bruin Blue campaign has raised a historic $218 million in support of our student-athletes and staff. Our campaign has also secured a new commitment in the form of an $86 million gift to the Los Angeles Football Club and the Rose Bowl. To further support our student-athletes, we are excited to announce a new challenge for UCLA Athletics.
